

Although not in Loudoun County (Loudoun Heights, which is in the County, is shown at the bottom of the photo, just south of the Shenandoah River), Harpers Ferry, WV borders Loudoun's northern-most edge. Perhaps most well known for the site where John Brown and his followers barricaded themselves after the 1859 arsenal raid, Harpers Ferry is now both a populated town and the site of a national park.